DEFENSIVE MOVE AGAINST JAPAN

Conference of White Nations on Pacific Urged by Solon.

OFFERS RESOLUTION IN HOUSE

Representative From Washington State Holds the Resolution Unanimously and "Provocative of Trouble"—Britten of Illinois, the Author, Alleges Japan Is Making Military Preparations Against United States.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Representative Britten (Rep., Ill.) introduced a resolution in the house calling upon President Coolidge to summon a conference of white nations bordering on the Pacific to adopt mutual defensive policies against Japan.

Introduction of the resolution provoked a bitter wrangle between Britten and Representative Johnson (Rep., Wash.), who described it as "untimely and provocative of trouble."

Representative Britten charged Japan was making "military preparations against this country."

Representative Macclafferty (Rep., Cal.) declared that "the thing to be avoided now is the expression of ill-advised opinion based upon a lack of understanding."

Mr. Britten's resolution later was the subject of a wrangle in the house, the Illinois representative declaring the secretary of the navy and naval experts had made observations which he construed as meaning that Japan was making war preparations against the United States.

Chairman French of the committee which framed the naval appropriation bill broke into the debate to declare that in his examination of Secretary Wilbur and naval experts there never had been any suggestion that it was believed Japan was preparing for war against this country.

In a formal statement Secretary Hughes welcomed the appointment of a new Japanese ambassador to Washington and predicted an era of "the most cordial relations" between the two countries.

Charges that a trusted senate employee negotiated for money to be paid to him if the postal pay increase bill should be enacted have reached President Coolidge and which he has discussed with members of the senate. It is said that an outside group interested in passage of the bill was to pay $10,000 to this employee in event of its enactment, the report being that $2,600 was paid, and that the situation came to the knowledge of the administration as a result of efforts of the employee to obtain further payment.

The element of scandal, small in itself, may affect the fate of the $68,000,000 bill, which has to do with the pay of thousands of postal clerks, carriers and postmasters. Should it be established that improper means were used to purchase supposed "influence" for enactment of the bill, it might cause enough senators to change their votes to sustain the veto of President Coolidge and defeat the bill. The administration is of the opinion that the charges should be investigated.

Senate leaders are planning to seek the consent of the senate to a definite time for a vote on the Underwood Muscle Shoals measure. Senator Underwood, in replying to the attack on his measure by Senator Norris (Rep., Neb.), again charged opponents of the bill with filibustering on Muscle Shoals legislation.

The subcommittee of the senate judiciary committee was called for a preliminary meeting in its inquiry into the Washington Herald editorial attacking Senator Underwood and his Muscle Shoals bill. The investigation was ordered by the senate under a unanimous consent agreement obtained by Senator Underwood.

HERE AND THERE

State department was officially notified of the appointment of Tsuneo Matsudaira as new Japanese ambassador to this country.

An explosion in the Burnett mine of the Pacific Coast Coal company, 27 miles south of Tacoma, Wash., killed four men. Several others were injured.

Police arrested Bunkai Aikawa, a Japanese youth, who was found armed with a knife prowling outside a window of the American embassy at Tokyo, Japan. The boy was said to be mentally deranged.

S. Glenn Young, Klan raider, was indicted for impersonating an officer in Williamson county (Illinois) liquor raid.

LOUIS MALVY

Former French Minister of Interior Granted Amnesty.

Malvy was convicted of communicating with the enemy during the war and banished from France.

ORR TO LEAD DEMOCRATS

Choice of Ohio Representatives-Elect, Who Hold Caucus.

Columbus, Dec. 19.—Representative F. W. Orr of Wayne county, second term, was elected minority floor leader of the Ohio house at the caucus of Democratic representatives-elect here.

Orr defeated Minor K. Johnston of Richland county, receiving 11 votes to Johnston's 4. Orr's election was made unanimous on motion of C. F. Elise, Crawford county, who had nominated Johnston.

Five of the 20 Democratic members-elect were absent. Herman S. Fox of Montgomery county presided at the caucus.

The only patronage given the Democratic minority in the house includes appointment of two pages and one stenographer. Mrs. Margaret Bertsch was chosen for the latter job and Kenneth May of Piqua as one of the pages. Appointment of the other page was left to the floor leader.

Resolutions expressing deep sorrow at Governor Campbell's death were adopted by the caucus. The resolution said the "state, the nation and the world lost a warrior for righteousness in public and private life, his family an indulgent and kindly mentor, and all human kind a friend."

PROBING CHARGE AGAINST DRY AGENTS

McDonald Also Meets Attaches of His Department.

Columbus, Dec. 19.—Prohibition Commissioner McDonald is probing reports that two state prohibition enforcement agents stole 739 gallons of liquor and a truck in or near Columbus. Names of the two agents under suspicion are withheld by McDonald, who said it would be an injustice to them to reveal their identity until the investigation reached a more definite stage. The two agents are said to have held up the driver of the truck before he was able to make a "delivery" to a Columbus bootlegger, and then drove away. McDonald said much of the evidence he has come from anonymous sources.

McDonald and Deputy Commissioner Samuel A. Propst are attending the conference of attaches of the state enforcement department, who are in Columbus today. This is the first official meeting of the new chief deputy with employees of the department. It is expected that plans for a concerted drive on transporters, sellers and manufacturers of intoxicants will be arranged. Propst said local officers have been co-operating with state and federal men in arresting transporters, and it has been more difficult to bring liquor into the state and distribute it.

Jackson, Miss., Dec. 19.—Miss Annie May Riggsdale, 18, telephone operator, is held here as a result of the killing of her stepfather, H. E. Warren. The girl told authorities she was awakened during the night by screams and on going to her mother's room found Warren beating her. Seizing a pistol, she said she fired two shots at him.

FUNERAL SERVICE TO BE SIMPLE

Body of Ex-Governor Campbell to Be Buried Tomorrow.

PUBLIC TO VIEW THE REMAINS

Honorary Pallbearers Include Governor Donahey and Former Governors Harmon and Cox—Body to Lie in State in Capitol Rotunda For Several Hours Preceding Funeral. Tributes Paid Deceased.

Columbus, Dec. 19.—The body of former Governor James E. Campbell will lie in state in the rotunda of the state house tomorrow between 9 a. m. and 1 p. m.

Members of the former governor's family decided they would be willing to meet the suggestion of Governor Donahey. No flowers or decorations other than a flag will be used on the casket. According to the present plan, funeral service will begin Saturday afternoon shortly after the body is taken from the state house to the First Presbyterian church.

Honorary pallbearers include Governor Donahey, former Governor Judson Harmon, former Governor James M. Cox, Claude Meeker, Dr. W. O. Thompson, General Edward Orton, General Thomas E. Powell, Robert F. Wolfe, Allen Andrews, Hamilton, Captain Joseph H. Dowling, Dayton; Judge W. H. Kinder, Findlay.

The heart attack which carried off the former governor followed a testimonial dinner to former Federal Judge John E. Sater. When the dinner was over he chatted with old friends. "I'll live to be a hundred," he remarked as he smiled and talked with them. One hour later he was stricken. His two daughters, Mrs. John M. Taylor and Mrs. J. J. Coons, and his son, Andrew O. Campbell, were with him when he died.

Mr. Campbell was governor of Ohio in 1890 and 1891. He ran for governor three times. In 1889 he defeated Joseph B. Foraker by 10,872 plurality. In 1891 he was defeated by William McKinley by 21,511 plurality. McKinley was re-elected in 1893, defeating Lawrence T. Neal. In 1895 Campbell was beaten by Asa S. Bushnell by a plurality of 93,522.

Mr. Campbell was in his 81st year. He was born at Middletown, Butler county, in 1843. He studied law and served in the Civil war. Campbell served three terms in congress. In his youth he had been a Republican, but in 1872, together with a number of other prominent Republicans, he became enrolled under the Democratic banner. That was in the campaign of Horace Greeley. Mr. Campbell for many years was an active leader in the Democratic party and was a member of the Ohio delegation to the Democratic national convention last June.

Governor Donahey issued the following statement: "Governor Campbell was a beloved dean of Ohio Democracy. He advocated true Democracy at all times during his public career. He practiced common honesty in all his dealings with his fellow-men. His friends are legion and his death is a distinct loss to the commonwealth of Ohio."

The family of the late ex-governor has been deluged with messages of condolence from persons in all walks of life.

MADDEN'S FRIENDS ACTIVE

Illinois Congressman Boomed For the Speakership.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Republican members of the Illinois delegation in congress sent out an appeal for support of Chairman Madden of the appropriations committee for the speakership. Several days ago a similar appeal was circulated by the Ohio delegation in behalf of Representative Nicholas Longworth, the Republican floor leader, and there are indications that several other house members, among them Wood of Indiana, may enter the speakership race. Selection of Mr. Madden, who represents a Chicago district, was urged in a letter signed by Representative Britten as chairman and Representative Reid as secretary and all other Republican members of the Illinois delegation except Mr. Madden.

The first avowed candidate for Republican floor leader in the next house is Representative Lehibach of New Jersey, whose name was presented by Republican members of the New Jersey delegation.

Miss Evelyn Hillard has filed a breach of promise suit against Hayes Nelson, president of the Nelson Motor Car company at Ashland, Ky., asking $50,000 damages.

Columbus, Dec. 19.—State supreme court was asked by the tax commission to issue writ of mandamus to compel Wilbur J. Main, Delaware county auditor, to compute 1924 taxes on real estate on the basis of valuations fixed by a reappraisal made this year. Auditor Main, although it was at his instigation that the reappraisal was made, refuses to use the new valuation, revised by the county board of revision and the tax commission, on the ground that the new reappraisal is more unjust than the old one.

SARTAIN FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

Alleged to Have Solicited and Accepted Bribes.

DEPOSED WARDEN ARRESTED

Accused With a Suspended Deputy of Soliciting and Accepting Bribes From Prisoners Confined in the Federal Prison at Atlanta—Sartain Charges He Is the Victim of "Petty Politics"—More Arrests Likely.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 19.—Warrants charging bribery were issued in United States district court here against A. E. Sartain, deposed warden of Atlanta federal prison, and L. J. Fletcher, former deputy warden.

Sartain was former sheriff of Franklin county, O. The arrests were made within a short time after the federal grand jury had started an investigation of affairs at the penitentiary by examining a number of witnesses, who were brought to the city from the prison.

Warrants for the two former officials were determined upon during a conference between District Attorney Clint W. Hager and W. J. Donovan, assistant attorney general, who was sent here from Washington to conduct the investigation.

Sartain and Fletcher were arrested on warrants charging them with soliciting and accepting bribes from prisoners upon information furnished by Graham Baughn, convicted in the Savannah rum ring sensation, and E. J. Sweeney of Detroit, reported to be a detective. It was charged by the two convicts that Fletcher received $2,500 each from Emmanuel Kessler and Morris Sweetwood, wealthy New York bootleggers, for obtaining for them "soft and easy jobs about the prison." The warrant also charged Fletcher received $5,000 from Mrs. R. K. Walthall, which, it charged, influenced him in showing favors to Kessler and Sweetwood. Sartain is accused in the warrant of receiving $5,000 from Baughn and from C. C. Tuten to have Tuten appointed chauffeur for the prison physician.

More arrests are in sight, according to District Attorney C. W. Hager, although he declined to state whether other officials are being investigated.

Counsel for the accused men issued a statement in which they charged that the arrests are a "political frameup" and declared that their clients will refute all charges. "We will have much more to say at a later date," the statement said. Sartain said he had nothing to add to his previous statement, alleging that he is the victim of "petty politics."

RYE AND WINTER WHEAT

Increase Noted by Government in the Areas Sown.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The area sown to winter wheat this fall totaled 42,317,000 acres, which is 6.5 per cent more than the revised estimate of 39,745,000 acres sown in the fall of 1923, the department of agriculture announced. The condition of wheat on Dec. 1 was 81.0 against 88.01 and 79.5 on Dec. 1, 1923 and 1922, respectively, and a 10-year average of 85.6. The sowings in the fall of 1922 were 46,100,000 acres and in the fall of 1921 were 49,787,000 acres.

The department also reported the area sown to rye this fall to be 4,206,000 acres, which is .8 per cent more than the revised estimate of 4,173,000 acres sown in the fall of 1923. The condition of rye on Dec. 1 was 87.3 against 89.9 and 84.3 on Dec. 1, 1923 and 1922, respectively, and a 10-year average of 89.4.

The farm price of wheat per bushel Dec. 1, 1924, was 132.1 per cent, compared to 95 per cent Dec. 1, 1923. The farm price of rye per bushel Dec. 1, 1923, was 107.3 per cent, compared to 64.9 per cent Dec. 1, 1923.

Mayor Held Captive.

Los Angeles, Dec. 19.—Mayor George Cryer of this city was held captive in his home for two hours while a desperate man covered him with an automatic pistol and threatened to kill him unless he immediately produced $5,000. Ben A. Critchlow, a Hollywood chiropractor, confessed to the police he had planned the robbery while in desperate need of funds. During the two hours in which Mayor Cryer talked to Critchlow a gun was pressed against his side. Cryer succeeded in getting the man into his study, fearing to alarm his wife and children, and promised to produce the cash if given a few hours' time. An appointment was made, and when Critchlow appeared he was placed under arrest.

EXPRESS REGRETS

Senators Willis and Fess and Others on Passing of Campbell.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Ohioans here expressed deep regret over the death of former Governor James E. Campbell.

Senator Willis sent the following telegram to Mrs. J. J. Coons, Columbus, a daughter: "I greatly regret to learn of the death of your distinguished father. His passing is a great loss to the people of Ohio. Both in his public career and his private life he gave noble service to his state and his country. We shall all greatly miss him."

Senator Fess issued this statement: "Our state has lost a great citizen, whose friends were legion. In all the vicissitudes of politics and business enterprises his sweetness of character and mildness of temper were never disturbed. His death will be mourned by all who knew him."

Congressman Speaks said: "Governor Campbell was such an outstanding figure in Ohio affairs and for a quarter of a century was so intimately and helpfully associated with all activities pertaining to Columbus that his death will be a distinct loss to the community."

PARENTS BLAMED

Grand Jury Probing High School Dances Makes Partial Report.

Toledo, Dec. 19.—According to a partial report of the federal grand jury, which has been investigating intoxication at dances attended by high school students, homes of students were the chief liquor supply sources. Many witnesses testified that liquor was brought from the homes, the report states. Relatives who permit liquor around houses where children live can not expect children to be law-abiding citizens, the report concluded.

The grand jury will convene after the holidays to continue the examination of students who attended a dance at the Collingwood hall Thanksgiving night, where many dancers were reported intoxicated. The grand jury report says that it is general comment that the Thanksgiving dance was no different from other dances attended by older persons. "If this condition continues," the report says, "the influence of the active generation is largely responsible for the deplorable state of adolescent society."

Freight Train Derailed.

Painesville, O., Dec. 19.—Seventeen cars of a New York Central freight train were derailed and two of them demolished as the result of an ill-packed switch at the Baltimore and Ohio crossing here, tying up traffic on the New York Central six hours. No one was injured. A tool house and a section shed were crushed beneath one of the derailed cars.

Draws Life Term.

Lisbon, O., Dec. 19.—William A. Wolfe, 25, clay miner, was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary. He was convicted of second degree murder for the shooting of Mrs. Flora Dearth, 52, in her restaurant in East Liverpool, Oct. 3.

Well, She Is, Isn't She?
Poor man! He can spend a full day making himself look pretty and nobody notices him, while a wee slip of a girl can come out just any old way and the entire populace will say, "Ain't she sweet?"—South Charleston Sentinel.

Not the Right Tune.
A certain man was angry one night and began to swear in the presence of his wife. The latter, thinking she might shame him into quitting, decided to imitate him and swore fervidly, using the same oaths that he did. He looked at her in amazement for a few minutes and then remarked, "Well, you have the same words but you haven't got the right tune."—Exchange.

Don't Worry.
Rise above small things. The woman who lets small things worry her will be completely undone the first time she meets with a really big problem. It is disintegrating to your mental and nervous condition, not to mention your physical condition, to worry. You need not be resigned to fate nor slip your troubles as the old friend duck's back, throws water. But you can meet troubles with a will to conquer them or adjust them—and after that "they should worry," but not you.—Exchange.

BENZOL GAS

"The King of Motor Fuel"

You'll Have No Trouble

Starting on Cool Days

If sluggish, slow to ignite gasoline has been giving you trouble in starting on these cool mornings, try a change to Benzol Gas and see the difference it makes.*

Try Benzol Gas, too, when you're driving among the hills and let your speedometer tell you how many more miles it gives per gallon than gasoline.

Benzol Gas also eliminates motor knocks that are so common when gasoline fills the tank. Hard carbon is banished by the use of this superior motor fuel.

Benzol Gas makes friends that stick. The motorist who uses it once usually comes back for more.

You can't possibly have gotten the best out of your car unless you have tried it.

But—Be sure to ask for the original Caldwell & Taylor Benzol Gas.

MOTHS! MOTHS!
What are they? Most people know but do you know? A solution for the protection of your clothes during the time they are not in use? You no doubt have noticed that moths will not work just in one spot but will eat a little here and there that is proof that there is something there they like. A sure prevention is to have your clothing thoroly cleaned that destroys all moths; even the eggs or other germs that may be in the garment then pack them or hang them in a moth proof bag which we furnish free with each suit, coat or overcoat we clean.

MY MISTAKE!

Oh, I went to see Melissa,
And I thought I had to kiss her
When she told me that she never had been kissed.

But I guess I made an error,
For Melissa is a terror,
And she smacked me in the kisser with her fist.

But I went ahead and kissed her,
As I'd often kissed her sister;
Yes, I kissed her till her lips, like mine, were sore!
But I'm sure I made an error,
For Melissa is a terror
And she never lets me kiss her sister any more.

AMUSEMENTS

We had often heard it said that it is fear of punishment that keeps the average taxpayer a law abiding citizen. Last night we proved to our own satisfaction that there is a good deal of truth in that assertion. Our natural impulse, after seeing "Wanderer of the Wasteland" at the Met theater, was to stand up and give three hearty cheers for Zane Grey who wrote the story, for Irvin Willat who directed this screen masterpiece, for George C. Hull and Victor Irvin, who adapted it to the screen and for the Paramount officials who had the courage to invest a lot of money to attempt something different. More power to them!

"Wanderer of the Wasteland" IS different. It is the first full length feature to be photographed entirely in color! And if that doesn't make it different then we don't know the meaning of the word. Moreover, if "Wanderer of the Wasteland" isn't a real rival of "The Covered Wagon" we miss our guess. High praise, indeed, but a good many people who have seen both will absolutely agree with us.

Zane Grey's story is familiar to many, but for those who have not read the book we will say that it's a story of a man, who is driven out into the desert by an unjust persecution, to become a wanderer and an outcast. The good that he does for others gives him the courage to come back to civilization and fight his own fight and win it. There is virtually every desirable fan interest in the picture—love, thrills, fights, humor—now, honestly, what more does anybody want than that?

And to top it all, there's a tip-top cast of popular players, who actually seem to live the parts they play. Jack Holt achieves a great triumph in his vivid portrayal of the "wanderer." Billie Dove has opportunities out of the ordinary for splendid acting and makes the most of them. Noah Berry again proves he is one of the best character actors on the screen, and Kathryn Williams covers herself with dramatic glory.

Don't miss this one on your life!

FIRE NEAR NEW HOLLAND.

The home of John Barton on the Carpenter farm, on the Glaze road, two miles north of New Holland, was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday morning. The family was aroused from their beds and escaped with their night clothing. Practically all their personal property was destroyed by the blaze.

The fire is thought to have started from a defective flue. Neighbors arrived too late to be of any assistance in saving household goods. The good people of the neighborhood have planned to care for the unfortunate family. Sickness and other misfortunes has put the family in pitiable circumstances.—New Holland Leader.

"What is its name?" asked a visitor in a studio, when shown among many gods, one whose face was concealed by hair and which had wings on its feet. "Opportunity," replied the sculptor. "Why is its face hidden?" "Because men seldom know him when he comes to them." "Why has he wings on his feet?" "Because he is soon gone and once gone, cannot be overtaken."

BASKETBALL

C. A. C. Defeats Gertner Tailors in a Fast, Clean Game.

Local fans with a patience were well repaid for their wait Thursday night when the basketball game between The Gertner Tailors of Columbus and the C. A. C. finally got under way.

Both teams played a fast, clean game with the locals securing a six point lead early in the game which the visitors were never able to overcome having to depend almost entirely on long shots for their points due to the air tight defense of the club team. Also the team work of the locals showed a remarkable improvement with pass work almost perfect and the five men working as one. Good man showed up best for the visitors.

On Christmas night the club will meet their old rivals, The Bliss College Grads. This team needs no introduction. Fans know there is another treat in store for them.

FREE GOLD FISH

(Including Fish Bowl.)

We are giving away a crystal bowl containing two gold fish, with the purchase of a fifty cent box of Lac-Lax, the delicious candy laxative. Children delight in these lively gold fish, the goldfish we could find anywhere. They are fascinating to grownups, too, and the clear crystal of the aquarium reflecting the golden flashes of alert, busy little inhabitants adds an ornamental touch to the home. We couldn't think of a more acceptable gift with which to introduce this very mild and pleasant laxative. And a laxative of this kind is very important at this particular time. Lac-Lax are mild and harmless, nothing habit-forming about them. Grown folks like them and children really delight in taking them, for they are just like mint lozengers. MACK PARRETT

How the Cricket Sings.
The wings of a cricket are folded horizontally and form when closed slender, thread-like tapering points beyond the wing covers. It is supposed to be by friction of the wing covers against each other and from a peculiarity of their structure, that the males produce the sound which makes these insects so well known.—Christian Herald.

Substitutes for Hickory.
Specifications for handles for trenching tools were prepared during the war by the forest products laboratory at Madison, allowing seven substitute species in place of hickory and also certain minor defects, thereby making possible greatly increased production for this class of material and at the same time giving satisfactory handles.—University Bulletin.

HAROLD BINKLEY DEAD

Harold Binkley, aged 25 years, of 179 East Hudson street, Columbus, died in University hospital Wednesday night from pneumonia and heart failure following an operation for appendicitis. He was recovering nicely from the operation and his death was unexpected. Mr. Binkley came to Columbus from Kingston, Ohio, three years ago to attend the Bliss Business college and at the time of his death was employed in the auditing department of the state industrial commission. He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage two years ago was Miss Louise Peck Mawcett of Gloucester; also his parents who live in Kingston.

The body was taken to Kingston Friday morning for funeral services and burial.

Dare to Turn Back.

It often requires courage to turn back when we have taken a wrong step, but it is easier to turn back after the first step than after the second or third, and much safer and pleasanter.

NOVEL WINDOW AD

Hardware Merchant and Men's Furnisher Exchange Displays.

Lynbrook, Long Island, provides an example of clever advertising of a general window display character. On one side of the main street is a hardware store which has made something of a specialty of its window dressing. Across the street is a men's furnishing store dealing in hats, clothing, haberdashery, etc. The owners of these stores got together and hit upon a plan of cooperation, by agreeing to use one-half of each other's windows. Thus in the window of the hardware man where the public is used to looking for a display of spades, axes, hammers and tin snips there appears a very fine display of shoes. In the window also appears this message slapped under the noses of the passers-by in poster form:

"No, we are not selling shoes

These shoes are to be bought at the D. & J. Levy store across the street.

In the Levy store window appears a hardware display with this announcement:

"No, we do not sell hardware.

These goods are to be obtained from Alder & Dabler, across the street."

The windows have attracted considerable attention. Of course the benefit of such an enterprise is restricted because the advertising is confined to the people who pass the stores. Its appeal to the storekeepers has added strength because it involves no expenditure.—American Press.

A Man and the World.

The world owes you nothing, unless by your own achievements you have made it your debtor. The man who imagines that the world owes him a living has taken the first step toward knavery; the second step is taken when he tries to collect the debt which is not due him. The greater his success in this, the greater thief he is, if he takes out of the world more than he has put into it.—Lyman Abbott.

Shoulder Your Own Errors.

We are shallow and selfish and lacking in dignity when we play one thing against another to gain our ends. Is it that we cannot think largely, comprehensively enough to realize that when we disown responsibility for our actions and sayings we are reflecting upon others to their hurt and discomfiture? It is almost as great a crime to be indifferent or unheeded of these matters as to be malevolent. There is something radically wrong with us inately if we cannot sponsor our own individual ideas and opinions without making some one a "but" for them.—Exchange.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.

The lower grades of the Jackson township school will give a Christmas program Tuesday evening, December 23, at 7:15 o'clock. No admission charge will be made. The public and patrons of the school are cordially invited to attend.

Mothers in Heaven.

"Perhaps even from heaven our mothers see us and protect us still. I think they do."—"Mothers and Children," by Frank D. by.

Race of Boat Builders.

The Irish from time immemorial have been boat builders, although the west coast mackérel fishermen, or the hake coast to the south, or the haddock fisheries on the southeast must be visited to understand the real ingenuity of the Irish native boat builder. In a large way Belfast represents the high development of the shipbuilding industry.
